As part of those plea agreements, the defendant has agreed in this case to waive all right to appeal the conviction and sentence in this case. Specifically, the defendant understands that the law gives him a right to appeal and collaterally attack his sentence. Acknowledging this, the defendant knowingly waives any right to appeal his conviction and sentence, and any right he may have to bring any other post-conviction attack on his sentence. He specifically agrees not to file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 or § 2241 attacking his sentence. This waiver does not prohibit the right to pursue or maintain such an action alleging that he received ineffective assistance of counsel.

Also as part of the above-referenced plea agreements, the United States has agreed to recommend concurrent sentences for the charges in this case as well as cause numbers CR 15-05-H-CCL and CR 15-12-H-CCL.
